

ILLUSIONS' WORLD

Those who knew me at school were just two or maybe three
Those who loved me now think I'm an asshole and don't want me anymore
I don't know either who I am
I live in an illusions' world that's only mine

Like most people I pursue a dream and I don't think it will come true
Sooner or later I'll fall asleep and who knows who'll wake me up tomorrow
I don't know either what I'm looking for
I live in an illusions' world that's only mine

Na na na
Only mine na na na
Only mine na na na

Let's change something in this life
Don't you think this reality is a jail?
My mother always harasses me but I switch her off and stop
I'd like to compare who I am now and who I'll be then
I don't know either when I'm right
I live in an illusions' world that's only mine

I think now I must get the beautiful things or I'll never get them
Living alone I can't grow up and I feel blue
I don't know either if I'm sure
I live in an illusions' world that's only mine

Na na na
Only mine na na na
Only mine na na na

Let's change something in this life
Don't you think this reality is a jail?
