

THIS IS

I'm enjoying this road
The sun is burning on my skin and the wind caresses me
I'm enjoying this road
The rainbow reflects on me
And I'm closing the old doors
'Cause a voice is calling...is calling me
Tells me "come here, I'm looking for you"
And it's me...that I'm looking for myself

If I do something I do it 'cause I want it
And I don't want to hide from you anymore
If I do something I do it 'cause I want it
'Cause life is only one and this is

This is an habit
It's like a t-shirt I don't want to take off
This is
an habit
It's like that light I don't want to switch off
This is
This is

The rain slides on me
Than I dry myself with the absent wind
I could wake up another day
Anyhow I already stopped the time and it will restart with me
And I'm opening new doors
'Cause a voice is calling...is calling me
And asks me if I'm escaping
And it's me....escaping from you

If I do something I do it 'cause I want it
And I don't want to hide from you anymore
If I do something I do it 'cause I want it
'Cause life is only one and this is

This is
