

WHY DID YOU SAY GOODBYE TO ME

What did you find after you lost me?
Do you know what you left and what you got?

And you know I miss you, your smile is sweeter than ever
And still here, you're tormenting me this way

The time has passed, you were water under the bridge
So why now you're looking for a contact

And-and you know I miss you, your smile is sweeter than ever
And-and still here, you're tormenting me this way, come on go away

Maybe the same desire inflames you too
But in a moment you're already speaking to another man
Perhaps you don't want anything from me
But do you know how did you leave me?
Why did you say goodbye to me?

And-and you know I miss you, your smile is sweeter than ever
And-and still here, you're tormenting me this way, come on go away

And-and you know I miss you, your smile is sweeter than ever
And-and still here, you're tormenting me this way, come on go away
