

THE INNER PSYCHO-LOVING RESEARCH

To speak on the phone is more and more difficult by now
Pauses knock me flat doubts don't stop anymore
I wonder where my voice is going

When you told me that you don't like my loquacity
I wondered if you'll listen to me in the silence
Whenever I'm uncertain I know you're right

I can't neither understand myself
Can you fancy me understanding the other sex
It's a hard struggle between reason and feeling
But your presence reveals what I have inside
It wasn't easy trying to know you just a little Heartbeats are rising you are the true adrenalin
If you take me for a ride I'll get my revenge

Days go by arranging the future for us
To gaze into each other's eyes and then hold on with our thoughts
If I dig inside me I won't find myself anymore

I can't neither understand myself
Can you fancy me understanding the other sex
It's a hard struggle between reason and feeling
But your presence reveals what I have inside

And I'd just like to bring you away to bring you with me
Following together the same trail but I wonder what
What do you do to me?
To make me react like this
What do you do to me?
To be on earth but feeling like I'm in heaven

I can't neither understand myself
Can you fancy me understanding the other sex
It's a hard struggle between reason and feeling
But your presence reveals what I have inside

And I'd like only to carry you away to carry you with me
Following together the same trail but I wonder what
What do you do to me?
To react like this
What do you do to me?
To be on earth but feeling like I'm in heaven
