

THAT'S ALL I'VE GOT

There's a bend there's no return
I might be wrong and I wake up
The air stirs my hair and this cold comes along with me
While the sea is moving for thousand miles
Everything is moving and I stand still
How strange I like it we're in winter

I've nothing to share
My soul wants to go out
So it's another day
Get out of my way

And now I'm moving together with the people
Nobody stands still and I'm thinking about you
And you move yourself and your hips
Now you're close to me now you're far away

People is looking at me and I'm looking at the people
And a lot of girls are all around me
Nobody tells me..."you get the wrong day"

I've nothing to share
My soul wants to go out
So it's another day
Get out of my way

GUITAR SOLO

At last you took a decision raise your ass and go away
But you don't know what you left and either where you're going
Though these verses seem to be endless
I should change them as if they were clothes
Everybody as ever plays his own game
I guess this time the song is over

I've nothing to share
My soul wants to go out
So it's another day
Get out of my way
